LIVE AUCTION WITH ROBIN STARR, MCT PARENT

RULES OF THE GAME

SILENT AUCTION

1. All items will be listed by number on bid sheets. Buyers will enter their name, bid number and dollar bid on these sheets. Please respect the "Minimum Raise" amounts listed on the bid sheets.
2. Bid as often as you wish and on as many items as you wish. It is a good idea to return to items that interest you, constantly checking on your last bid in order to win the items you choose.
3. Bids may NOT be withdrawn once they have been entered on the sheet. A bid is your OBLIGATION to buy.
4. Items will be awarded to the highest bidders entered on the sheets at the time the silent auction tables are closed.
NOTE: Auctioneer will announce the closing of the Silent auction tables based on color starting at 7pm.

LIVE AUCTION

1. The LIVE Auction will begin after the Silent Auction. It will continue until all items have been sold.
2. Bids will be made by raising your bid paddle and being acknowledged by the Auctioneer.
3. The highest bid recognized by the Auctioneer will take the item. An item not sold at a satisfactory price may be withdrawn at the option of the Auctioneer.
4. It is the discretion of the Auctioneer and donor to make an item available to the top 2 bidders. In this situation, the item will go to both bidders at the lower of the top two bids. A bid is your OBLIGATION to buy.
5. The record of sales kept by the Auctioneer and the Recorder will be final.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

All items are sold "as is." Neither the McCarthy-Towne School, the Auction Committee, nor the Auctioneer provides warranties, either written or implied, as to the condition, authenticity, availability, completeness or value of the auction items. Objects are not exchangeable or returnable. Tickets to all sporting events may NOT be sold. Winning bidders on vacation homes may be required to place a refundable security deposit with the owner. Please check with owners regarding smoking, pets and other details. By bidding, you acknowledge your acceptance of the terms outlined above. We reserve the right to withdraw any item for any reason prior to the auction.

PAYMENT AND PICK UP

At the conclusion of the auction, please proceed to the cashier to pay for items won during the Silent and/or Live Auctions. Certificates for goods and services should be picked up at the cashier's desk at the time of payment. All property must be paid for with cash, check or credit card and removed the night of the auction. Please note there is an additional 3% charge for credit card purchases.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this program.
We apologize for any errors that may have occurred.

WITH GRATITUDE...

The Auction Committee would like to give our appreciation and thanks to the following individuals who helped make the auction possible:

- ❖ The 2010-2011 auction committee chairs! This beach bash would not have been possible without the help from: Julie Agapite, Karen Anderson, Sandy Billings, Ann Budner, Michele Caterina, Kim Clark, Heidi Dalaklis, Lynne Densen, Jill DeFoe, Sue Donahue, Allison Hammer, Chris Hanlon, Julia Hanna, Kate Imhoff, Maria Ledebouer-Cid, Bridget Matz, Joan McCaffrey, Pauline Thorpe, Kristi Pucillo, Trish Zarola
- ❖ The volunteers who helped with business donations, classroom projects, raffle ticket assembly & distribution, and many other tasks. Thank you so much!!!
- ❖ Robin Starr, a McT parent and also professional auctioneer who donated her time and skills!
- ❖ The Andersons for storing all the auction donations prior to the beach bash!
- ❖ David Krane for his support and acknowledgments to the McT staff and families for their time and efforts spent preparing for the auction.
- ❖ Patty Lee, Astrid Trostorff, and Maureen Jones for all the tremendous amount of help, knowledge and support!
- ❖ Hanna Melnyczuk for her assistance and creative inspiration!
- ❖ Sandra O'Connor, for donating the beautiful gold frames for the classroom projects!
- ❖ The following people generously provided cash donations which were used to help with auction expenses such as printing, decorations, classroom projects, and the entertainment: The Scarbro/Hammer family, The Lipka family and The McCaffrey family!
- ❖ The Raffle Team Families for taking the time to sell tickets on the weekends!
- ❖ Thank you to Donelan's, Acton Post Office, and Roche Bros. for providing the locations to sell raffle tickets.
- ❖ Many thanks to the following businesses and groups for their donations to the auction: Bagel Buddies, Idylwilde Farms, Lehigh-Armstrong Inc., Sorrento's and T.C. Lando's.
- ❖ Also, a big thanks to Tracie Carlson, owner of SoManyBoxes.com and Bob Hirsch from the Grape Vine in Boxborough who donated so generously to help fill the centerpieces.
- ❖ We are extremely grateful to all the families, McT faculty, McT staff, and local businesses who gave so generously - their time, energy and services. The auction would not be possible without the incredible participation of so many generous people!

Please let participating merchants know how much we appreciate their donations by patronizing their businesses and acknowledging their contributions!

LIVE AUCTION ITEMS

- 1 Red Sox Box Seat Tickets
Two grandstand seats on the third base side to the Saturday, April 16 Red Sox vs. Toronto Blue Jays. Game time is 1:00 pm.

Donor: Sandra & Brian O'Connor Value: $110
- 2 Guided Salt Water Fishing Trip
Enjoy a half day guided salt water fishing trip (light tackle and/or fly fishing) with lunch for 2 people. We will go where the fish are biting, most likely in Boston Harbor on a mutually agreeable date. Expires October, 2011.

Donor: Dominic Brown & Julia Hanna Value: $350
- 3 Callie's Fourth Grade - "Planetary Visions"
Biocolors and diffusion paper
As part of the astronomy unit, students invented their own planets. The special paper allows the colors to bleed into one another. The students experimented with colors and how they blend, then carefully selected their favorite area in the large sheet of paper and cut out their unique planet. The results are out of this world!

Donor: Callie O'Connor's Fourth Grade Class Value: Priceless!
- 4 David's Fourth Grade - "Alphabet"
Mixed media collage
This picture is brought to you by the letter "D" and the number "26." David's class really watched their p's and q's this year. By combining maps and other brightly colored and patterned papers, the students created an artful alphabet that you'll never get tired of viewing.

Donor: David Rachlin's Fourth Grade Class Value: Priceless!
- 5 Noreen's Fourth Grade - "Planetary Visions"

11 Popcorn Taste Test with McT Office Crew

Is your favorite microwave popcorn really the tastiest? The McT office folks (Astrid, Patty and Maureen) offer this exciting opportunity for an entire class to take part in this consumer experiment. Bid yourself or with a group of parent's from your child's class. If you or your group of parent's are the winning bidder/s, your child's class will be the official McCarthy-Towne Taste Testers of a variety of microwave popcorns in a blind taste test to be held at school during a special snack recess. We will tabulate the results and your child and representatives from the class will present the official results to the entire school in an McT Community Assembly. The taste test will take place during April or May on a date to be determined by the office staff and classroom teacher. Don't miss this opportunity for your child to be the official McT Taste Testers of 2011.

Donor: Astrid Trostorff, Patty Lee and Maureen Jones

13 Caitlin's Fifth Grade - "Cartographer's Dream"

Prismacolor pencil and watercolor

This one-of-a-kind collector's item is McT's rendition of Antique Map Geographica, c.1630 by Henricus Hondius. Famous Dutch mapmaker Hondius transformed cartography into a rich, intricate art form. His map was divided into smaller pieces so that each student could study the details and connections of his or her piece to the whole. The class then combined their cartography art to build a map that will take you to faraway places.

Donor: Caitlin Walsh's Fifth Grade Class

Value: Priceless!

14 Vanessa's Fifth Grade - "Cartographer's Dream"

Prismacolor pencil on parchment paper

This one-of-a-kind collector's item is McT's rendition of New World, c.1676 by Pieter Goos. The map was divided into smaller pieces so that each student could study the details and connections of his or her piece to the whole. The class then combined their cartography art to build a map that will take you to faraway places.

25 Abby's Third Grade Class - "Gourmet Francais"

Collage, pencil and ink

The tastes of France come alive in this unique piece of decorative art. Using their imagination and photographs, students worked with origami paper to create this beautiful miniature menu of French foods. They enhanced each piece by adding some shading and details in colored pencil. The students then demonstrated their cursive skills and their French vocabulary by labeling each piece in delicate black ink.
